【統整與總結】

I. Note-taking

- After sorting out different perspectives, Ss have to use the graphic organizer to take notes.
- Ss would use the highlighter to highlight his/ her 3 impressive ideas and understand the importance of school lunch.

Students	Parents	Kitchen staffs	School
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>hungry</li> <li>unhealthy</li> </ul>  <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>We eat differently.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>protest</li> <li>cook and deliver the lunch</li> <li>Cause troubles (money, busy, angry)</li> </ul> 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Lose the jobs</li> </ul> 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A lot of trash</li> <li>Street safety</li> <li>Food safety</li> <li>Other schools have no lunch.</li> </ul>

- think they are positive or negative?
- Here is a question for you. If there is no school lunch from now on, what will happen?
  - Talk to your partners and write down your ideas on the post-it.
  - One post-it, one answer.
  - Let's see your ideas. Are the two ideas similar? Then we can put them together.
  - Look at the post-its here, who could have these ideas?

Note-taking

- We've sorted out different perspectives. Let's write down the ideas on your worksheet.
- Read the sentences again. What are the three ideas that you think are impressive?
- Then use your highlighter to circle the impressive ideas.

【引起動機】

I. Greeting and Agenda

1. T greets with Ss and introduces the agenda.

II. The Problem of School Lunch

1. T briefly reviews the concept of last session.
2. T guides Ss to think about the problem of eating school lunch at school.
3. Ss are encouraged to share their ideas.
4. T shows the target word “food waste” and talks about the negative impact.

【發展活動】

I. Leftovers or Food Scraps

1. After showing the concept, T explains the waste of school lunch would be divided into two parts which are leftovers and food scraps.

2. T shows several images and guides Ss to identify whether leftovers or food scraps.
3. Ss have to summarize the definition of leftovers and food scraps.

What are leftovers and food scraps?

leftovers The edible food that has not been used or eaten.

food scraps Parts of food that are inedible.

4. Ss work in pairs and look at the pictures. Use the color chips to recognize leftovers and food scraps.

II. School Lunch Leftovers Observation

1. T asks Ss a question, “Why do we have to know what leftovers and food scraps are?”
2. T explains to Ss that they’re going to do the lunch

Worksheet
Color chips

The Problem of School Lunch

- ⊙ We’ve learned school lunch is very important in Taiwan, but there is a problem about school lunch.
- ⊙ Talk to your partners and think about what problem it is.
- ⊙ Did you make any food waste before?

Leftovers or Food Scraps

- ⊙ Look at the food waste, is it edible?
- ⊙ There are two parts, leftovers and food scraps.
- ⊙ Are they leftovers or food scraps?
- ⊙ Can you tell me what are leftovers and food scraps?
- ⊙ Work with the partner, and take the color chips. Red is leftovers and green is food scraps.
- ⊙ Show me your color chips.

25’

Lunch Leftovers Observation

- ⊙ Do you have many lunch leftovers?
- ⊙ Why do you have leftovers every day?
- ⊙ Let’s observe the lunch leftovers and take notes in a week.
- ⊙ First, you have to take two pictures, leftovers observation.

- In a week, Ss are going to take the pictures of the school lunch and lunch leftovers. Based on the lunch menu, Ss can look at the two pictures and determine the amount of lunch leftovers. Ss should explain the reason why they have leftovers on that day.

- Ss also need to learn the steps how Ss should separate the leftovers and food scraps.

【統整與總結】

I. Mission Reinforcement

- T explains the observation worksheet again.
- T assigns few Ss who are going to take pictures in a week.
- T reminds Ss have to keep the record for a week.

before lunch and after lunch.

- Next, after taking pictures, let's practice how to separate the leftovers and food scraps.
- Finally, look at the pictures and write the reason why you have the leftovers.
- This is the lunch menu for next week.
- Every day, look at the pictures, do you have few, some or many leftovers for each dish? Circle your ideas.
- For example, if we have many rice leftovers on Monday, why is it? Is it about portion, flavor or other reason? Write down your observation.

Mission Reinforcement

- How many pictures?
- How do we separate the food waste?
- Do you circle every dish?
- How many days do you do the observation?
